Highest and lowest risk

Asian economies are among the most vulnerable to economic damage from a pandemic. Nomura International ranked more than 90 countries by their relative vulnerability, based on population density, exposure to international trade and other factors.

Five most exposed

Five least exposed

Note: A higher score indicates a lower relative vulnerability.

Action Plans for Governance Harmonization

1. How do we continue to communicate?
2. How do we share our knowledge- practices, experiences, data/ information, documentations?
3. Would I like to learn from successes?
4. Would I like to learn from failures?
5. How many people from my side could I attract to participate in Community of Practitioners?
6. If I leave my post due to promotion, what's next?
7. Could I convince my supervisor about establishing Community of Practitioners?
